

Sheffield
Hallam
University

SHU
FEST

2–8 March

A week-long festival packed with fun and exciting events

SHU Fest #SHU Fest

shu.ac.uk/SHUfest

SHU Fest is a week-long festival with events every day, including live music, dance, cookery, a film screening, craft and much more.

Performances

During the week, there'll be live performances by Sheffield Hallam students, staff and special guests at both campuses.

Workshops

Experience a range of crafts in our interactive workshops. Learn a new skill and make something to take home.

Trip to another city

We are organising a trip to Cambridge, Newcastle or Nottingham as chosen by a public vote. See page 12 for details.

Get involved

For the most up-to-date events programme visit www.facebook.com/SHUfest or join our Facebook group SHU GoGlobal

#SHU Fest

Watch videos of the events at youtube.com/SHUinternational

Read articles on the GoGlobal blog at blogs.shu.ac.uk/GoGlobal

You can also email us at SHUfest@shu.ac.uk

Events calendar

Monday 2 March, 12.30–1pm

Cocklebread Band Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

The Cocklebread Band are a collection of Sheffield Hallam staff members. They got together for the 2012 University carol service and put on such an enjoyable performance that they were asked to play again for SHU Fest. Their 30 minute set will take you on a lighthearted romp through a world of folk, blues, gospel, country and bluegrass. Guaranteed to get you singing along!

Monday 2 March,
12–12.20pm

Acoustic duo – Emily Connor and John Underhill Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

President of the Students' Union Emily and her singing partner John perform well-known Irish duets and folksongs. Come along and join in.

Monday 2 March,
12.30–12.50pm

Piano performance by Gita Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Accomplished Indonesian pianist Gita will play popular and contemporary music with her own arrangements. Gita teaches piano back in her home country and is involved in the Bandung Theatre, performing in front of an audience of thousands. Visit her music channel at soundcloud.com/gitanofieka

Monday 2 March, 1–1.30pm

Musical performance by Zuza Paveley Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Second year student Zuza draws her inspiration from art, design, nature and the atmosphere of various places and points in time. Music started out as a hobby that has turned into a real passion which is growing with the AIM Society.

Monday 2 March, 1–1.30pm

Sax Appeal – Ben Woodard and Iain Hudson Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Sax Appeal's Ben Woodard and Iain Hudson are best friends from the south of England. They play everything on saxophone and acoustic guitar, covering a wide variety of material including new and old numbers. They come straight from busking, open mics and playing in clubs, and perform just the sort of music to eat your lunch to.

Monday 2 March,
1.30–1.45pm

Thai dancing – Rutchasaree Garrod Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Watch Rutchasaree Garrod perform an elegant and traditional Thai dance called Rubam Sukhaothai.

Monday 2 March, 1.45–2pm

Ukulele performance by Tom Cullen Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Tom has been playing the ukulele for around six years and the guitar for a short while. He has recently branched out into writing his own material and enjoys playing a wide range of genres.

Monday 2 March, 7–9pm

Historical tour with Ron Clayton Meet at the main University entrance, Owen Building

Tour guide, local historian and author from Sheffield, takes you on a diverse cultural, historical and anecdotal tour of central Sheffield illustrating its past and present richness of traditions, including Czech, Somali, French, Scottish, German, Norman, Viking, Jewish, Asian, Chinese and Yorkshire. It starts with a sample of mushy peas and Henderson's Relish, and finishes in the heart of the city. £5 per person – don't miss it!

Tuesday 3 March,
11am–3pm

Fairtrade Football Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Join in the fun on our human table football pitch and enjoy Fairtrade coffee, cakes, chocolate and fruit at half-time.

Tuesday 3 March, 12–12.30pm

Salsa dancing with Richard and Victoria Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Richard and Victoria are a sought after duo and had an amazing start to 2015 by being one of the main attractions at the Newcastle Salsa Congress.

Richard has been teaching salsa for eight years and kizomba dancing for just over a year. His crossbody/New York style salsa and sensual kizomba is one of the best attended classes in Sheffield and Chesterfield. Check out his Facebook group – RCDance.

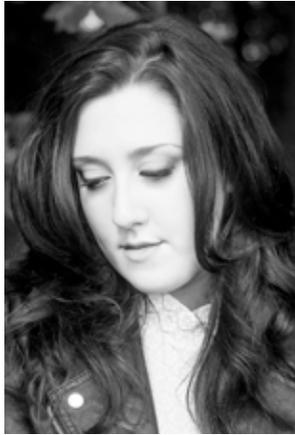

Victoria has been dancing for nearly 20 years and has trained in many styles of dance, specialising and competing nationally in ballroom and Latin. She has choreographed and performed on shows such as The Royal Variety Performance.

Tuesday 3 March,
12–12.20pm

Guitar and singing performance by Harry Lynch Bowers
Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Harry is a 19 year old singer/songwriter and guitarist. He's been playing guitar for four years and is an experienced performer who plays an eclectic range of covers and originals to please a variety of audiences.

Tuesday 3 March, 12.30–1pm

Singing performance by Sophie Lisi
Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Since she was just two years old, Sophie has been an avid performer. She has sung at many venues and taken part in a number of competitions and now wants to make a career out of singing. Her style is mainly acoustic but she also likes singing pop and rock. Enjoy her varied performance.

Tuesday 3 March,
12.30–12.45pm

Acoustic band – Duc Nhuan Luu
Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Duc Nhuan Luu have played guitar for five year. As international students living thousands of kilometers away from their home country Vietnam, their country music is definitely their close friend. English songs have helped them to gain more knowledge about British culture and enhanced their English. In their free time, they cover pop songs and also have taken part in some mini music shows for students in Sheffield.

Tuesday 3 March, 12.30–1pm

Piano performance by Paria Edalat Foyer, The HUBS

Paria is a student from Iran who has been playing the piano for eight years. She loves classical music and has performed at charity concerts in her home country. She will play songs from different eras, from baroque to modern classics.

Tuesday 3 March, 1–1.20pm

Guitar and singing performance by Harry Lynch Bowers
Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Harry is a 19 year old singer/songwriter and guitarist. He's been playing guitar for four years and is an experienced performer who plays an eclectic range of covers and originals to please a variety of audiences.

Tuesday 3 March, 1–1.20pm

Singing performance by Becky Webb
Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Becky is a singer/songwriter who has been writing on piano and guitar for many years and recently started performing her own songs. She derives her influences from indie folk artists such as Laura Marling, Half Moon Run and Gabriella Aplin. Check out soundcloud.com/becky-webb-3 for her upcoming releases.

Tuesday 3 March, 1–2pm

Basic Portuguese in 60 minutes

Owen Building 1037

Want to learn basic Portuguese in 60 minutes? A group of our Brazilian students will teach you some useful phrases and talk about their home country and its culture.

Tuesday 3 March,
1.30–1.45pm

Omani fashion show Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Fashion designer and current Sheffield Hallam student Hajar Alruzeiqi will showcase some of her designs.

Tuesday 3 March, 7–9pm

Give it a Go – Salsa Pod C, The HUBS

Our salsa society would like to invite you to Give it a Go at this free introduction to salsa dancing led by brilliant instructor Mr Ivan Rodrigo Garcia.

Wednesday 4 March,
12–12.15pm

Poetry reading Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

The first, second and joint third prize winners from the 2014 UniVerse Student poetry competition invite you to a lunchtime poetry reading. Join Rosemay Badcoe, James Giddings and Bronwen Barber to hear a selection of their thought-provoking poems.

Wednesday 4 March,
12.15–12.40pm

Singing performance by Jessica Widdowson Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Jessica has performed in many venues including London's West End. She also won 'Britain's most outstanding performance in musical theatre' for two consecutive years. She has recently been signed by a record label and her new single has just been released. Find out more about her performances and releases at her Facebook page – JessicaKate.

Wednesday 4 March, 12.15–12.45pm

Sax Appeal – Ben Woodard and Iain Hudson Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Sax Appeal's Ben Woodard and Iain Hudson are best friends from the south of England. They play everything on saxophone and acoustic guitar, covering a wide variety of material including new and old numbers. They come straight from busking, open mics and playing in clubs, and perform just the sort of music to eat your lunch to.

Wednesday 4 March,
12.30–2pm

Indonesian cookery demonstration
Kitchen, level 12 Owen Building

Ria Limardi, one of our Indonesian students, will cook popular street food Batagor (Bakso Tahu Goreng) – deep-fried stuffed tofu and dumpling served with aromatic peanut sauce. Samples will be available after the demonstration. This is a taste sensation that will make you ask for more! There are a limited number of spaces so please book in advance by emailing SHUfest@shu.ac.uk

Wednesday 4 March,
1.30–1.50pm

Singing performance by Jessica Widdowson
Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Jessica has performed in many venues including London's West End. She also won 'Britain's most outstanding performance in musical theatre' for two consecutive years. She has recently been signed by a record label and her new single has just been released. Find out more about her performances and releases at her Facebook page – JessicaKate.

Wednesday 4 March,
12.40–1pm

Singing performance by Ellie Cliffe
Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

20 year old acoustic and folk singer/songwriter Ellie is the winner of the battle of AIM 2014 and finalist in Yorkshire Unplugged 2014. You can find Ellie's music on SoundCloud at m.soundcloud.com/ellie-cliffe

Wednesday 4 March, 1–1.40pm

The Nomad Drummers
Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

The Nomad Drummers play West African rhythms on djembes. This friendly community group welcomes the audience to join in with the drumming. They have played a variety of locations including Wakefield Cathedral, Leeds city centre and Armley Prison.

Wednesday 4 March,
1.40–2pm

Singing performance by Marianne Flores
Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

First year student Marianne is an acoustic performer who began singing at a very young age.

Wednesday 4 March,
2–2.15pm

Beautiful Vietnam – traditional dance performance
Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

This dance is traditionally performed as an expression of love to the motherland. Performers will wear Ao Dai – the national traditional costume and Non La – a 'leaf-hat' as they dance to three songs.

Wednesday 4 March,
6–8pm

The Five and Dime Picture Show – free film screening of Pan's Labyrinth
The Void, level 1 Owen Building

The Five and Dime Picture Show return to host a special screening of Guillermo Del Toro's Pan's Labyrinth. Released in 2006, this haunting fantasy-drama set in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War details the strange journeys of an imaginative young girl who may be the mythical princess of an underground kingdom.

Pan's Labyrinth won numerous international awards, including three Academy Awards, three BAFTA Awards including Best Film Not in the English Language, the Ariel Award for Best Picture, the Saturn Awards for Best International Film and Best Performance by a Younger Actor for Ivana Baquero, and the 2007 Hugo Award for Best Dramatic Presentation, Long Form.

Thursday 5 March, 12–12.30pm

Musical performance by Jessica Widdowson and Ollie Daley Smith
Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Another performance from Jessica Widdowson, this time as a duet with Ollie Daley-Smith.

Thursday 5 March,
12.30–12.50pm

Musical performance by Zuzana Paveley
Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Second year student Zuzana draws her inspiration from art, design, nature and the atmosphere of various places and points in time. Music started out as a hobby that has turned into a real passion which is growing with the AIM Society.

Thursday 5 March,
12.30–1pm

Piano performance by Gita
Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Accomplished Indonesian pianist Gita will play popular and contemporary music with her own arrangements. Gita teaches piano back in her home country and is involved in the Bandung Theatre, performing in front of an audience of thousands. Visit her music channel at soundcloud.com/gitanofieka

Thursday 5 March,
1–1.30pm

Ballroom dancing
Heartspace, level 2
Owen Building

Fides Matzdorf, who works in Sheffield Business School, and Ramen Sen will demonstrate ballroom and Latin dances. After meeting through the Sheffield Dancesport Society, they have participated in many competitions, represented England at world championships, and were the top couple in the National League 2013 in Senior 1 Ballroom. Their teachers have included Darren Bennett and Lilia Kopylova of Strictly Come Dancing fame.

Thursday 5 March,
1–2.30pm

Craft workshops –
including decopatch
Heartspace, level 2
Owen Building

Decopatch is the latest papercraft craze. A modern twist on decoupage, decopatch uses a simple papier mache technique to breathe life into objects using special decorative paper and glue varnish. We will teach you to decorate coasters and figures which you can take away afterwards. It is therapeutic and most importantly fun!

Book your place by emailing
SHUfest@shu.ac.uk

Thursday 5 March, 1–1.30pm

Singing performance by Sophie Lisi
Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Since she was just two years old, Sophie has been an avid performer. She has sung at many venues and taken part in a number of competitions and now wants to make a career out of singing. Her style is mainly acoustic, but she also likes singing pop and rock. Enjoy a varied performance.

Thursday 5 March, 1.30–3pm

Kurdish celebration
Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Join the Kurdish Society for a cultural event including sounds, sights and snacks from Kurdistan.

Thursday 5 March, 6–9pm

The Big SHU Quiz
Hallam View

This exciting quiz consists of 10 themed picture and question rounds. Enter your team of up to four people for your chance to win prizes and a trophy.

Entry is £5 per person which includes bar snacks. All money raised will be donated to Weston Park Cancer Hospital Charity and the NSPCC. Places are limited so please register your team in advance by emailing SHUfest@shu.ac.uk with the names of your team members.

Friday 6 March,
12–12.15pm

Guitar and singing performance by Animesh and Akash Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

A live acoustic guitar and singing performance. Come along to hear songs from India.

Friday 6 March, 12.15–12.40pm

Wilde Sammon Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Wilde Sammon are an acoustic duo mixing indie, comedy and folk. Comprising Sheffield Hallam staff member Chris Sammon and Dave Wilde, they perform regularly in pubs and at regional festivals. The set will include their own upbeat songs along with some covers. For more about Wilde Sammon visit reverbnation.com/sammon

Friday 6 March,
12.30–2pm

Baking demonstration Kitchen, level 12 Owen Building

Join us for a baking demonstration by staff member Paul Benson who will share his special recipe for a delicious Raymond Blanc lemon drizzle cake. Places are limited so please book in advance by emailing SHUfest@shu.ac.uk stating 'Attending baking demonstration – 6 March'.

Friday 6 March, 1–1.20pm

Singing performance by Becky Webb Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Becky is a singer/songwriter who has been writing on piano and guitar for many years and recently started performing her own songs. She derives her influences from indie folk artists such as Laura Marling, Half Moon Run and Gabriella Aplin. Check out soundcloud.com/becky-webb-3 for her upcoming releases.

Friday 6 March, 12.40–1pm

Cocklebread Band Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

The Cocklebread Band are a collection of Sheffield Hallam staff members. They got together for the 2012 University carol service and put on such an enjoyable performance that they were asked to play again for SHU Fest. Their 30 minute set will take you on a lighthearted romp through world of folk, blues, gospel, country and bluegrass. Guaranteed to get you singing along!

Friday 6 March, 1.30–2pm

Wilde Sammon Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Wilde Sammon are an acoustic duo mixing indie, comedy and folk. Comprising Sheffield Hallam staff member Chris Sammon and Dave Wilde, they perform regularly in pubs and at regional festivals. The set will include their own upbeat songs along with some covers. For more about Wilde Sammon visit reverbnation.com/sammon

Friday 6 March,
1.30–3pm

Festa Junina – Brazilian carnival
Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building

Brazil is coming to Sheffield! With the recent football World Cup and the forthcoming Olympic games, the spotlight of the world is on the country. Join us to discover more about the land of samba, carnival and 'Festa Junina' and the culture, music and sport.

Friday 6 March, 2–3.30pm

Sugarcraft workshop
Owen Building 1032

Staff member Nicky Fuller will show you how to create a teddy bear using sugarpaste, teaching you simple modelling techniques which will inspire you to take up the art of sugarcraft and cake making. A limited number of spaces are available, so please book in advance by emailing SHUfest@shu.ac.uk

Friday 6 March, 5.30–7pm

Angklung demonstration
Owen Building 221

The Indonesian Society introduce the angklung – a traditional musical instrument made of bamboo. Each beautiful angklung has a unique sound or note and you will have a chance to play them. The instrument is known as one of the national identities of Indonesia as well as locally in West Java.

Friday 6 March, 6pm–late

Holi Festival celebrations
Meet at the main University entrance, Owen Building

Join us as we celebrate the Holi Festival – one of the most famous celebrations in the northern parts of India. At this Hindu festival, people celebrate the victory of the good over the bad and the beginning of the spring.

Gowthami, an experienced performer in Indian classical dance and Bollywood dance, will perform 'Lord Shiva Stuthi' (a semi-classical number) and a fusion of Bollywood.

Saturday 7 March, 8am–6pm

Trip to Cambridge, Newcastle or Nottingham – student vote
Meet at the main University entrance, Owen Building

To wrap up the week we invite you to vote for a day trip to one of the above cities, all of which are well known for culture and diversity in the UK. Please vote for your favourite place by 5pm on Wednesday 25 February. To vote visit go.shu.ac.uk/shufestvote

The winning location and price will be confirmed after voting closes on the SHU GoGlobal Facebook page. Tickets will be available from the Student Services Centre, level 5 Owen Building.

Cambridge

Nottingham

Newcastle

Sunday 8 March, 10am–3pm

International picnic in the park
Meet at the main University entrance, Owen Building

Join us for an international picnic in Sheffield's largest park – Graves Park. Please bring some picnic food to share with others and money for the bus journey there.

Refreshments at SHU Fest could earn you double points

Pay with your SHUcard from 12–2pm in Heartspace (Level 2, Atrium, City Campus) and The Granary (Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus) during SHU Fest and earn double loyalty points on any purchase.

- hot pasta and sauce pot with any £1.30 drink – only £2.95 in Heartspace
- a made for you sandwich with any £1.30 drink – only £4.50 in the Granary

Top up your card at shu.ac.uk/shucard

Selfie competition

Take a selfie with our booklet or at a SHU Fest event and you could win a prize!

Post or share your selfie at  SHU Fest  #SHU Fest

Last year's winners

Photo 1 – This Russian student won for her creativity. She made a dress out of SHU Fest booklets.

Photo 2 – This Brazilian student took a photo with all his friends at the Brazilian carnival.

Photo 3 – This Malaysian student made this impressive reflection in her sunglasses.

SHU Fest at a glance

Time	Event	Place
------	-------	-------

Monday 2 March

12–12.20pm	Acoustic duo – Emily Connor and John Underhill	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
12.30–12.50pm	Piano performance by Gita	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
12.30–1pm	Cocklebread Band	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
1–1.30pm	Musical performance by Zuza Paveley	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
1–1.30pm	Sax Appeal – Ben Woodard and Iain Hudson	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
1.30–1.45pm	Thai dancing – Rutchasaree Garrod	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
1.45–2pm	Ukulele performance by Tom Cullen	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
7–9pm	Historical tour with Ron Clayton	Meet at the main University entrance, Owen Building

Tuesday 3 March

11am–3pm	Fairtrade Football	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
12–12.20pm	Guitar and singing performance by Harry Lynch Bowers	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
12–12.30pm	Salsa dancing with Richard and Victoria	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
12.30–12.45pm	Acoustic band – Duc Nhuan Luu	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
12.30–1pm	Singing performance by Sophie Lisi	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
12.30–1pm	Piano performance by Paria Edalat	Foyer, The HUBS
1–1.20pm	Guitar and singing performance by Harry Lynch Bowers	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
1–1.20pm	Singing performance by Becky Webb	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
1–2pm	Basic Portuguese in 60 minutes	Owen Building 1037
1.30–1.45pm	Omani fashion show	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
7–9pm	Give it a Go – Salsa	Pod C, The HUBS

Wednesday 4 March

12–12.15pm	Poetry reading	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
12.15–12.40pm	Singing performance by Jessica Widdowson	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
12.15–12.45pm	Sax Appeal – Ben Woodard and Iain Hudson	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
12.30–2pm	Indonesian cookery demonstration	Kitchen, level 12 Owen Building
12.40–1pm	Singing performance by Ellie Cliffe	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
1–1.40pm	The Nomad Drummers	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
1.30–1.50pm	Singing performance by Jessica Widdowson	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
1.40–2pm	Singing performance by Marianne Flores	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
2–2.15pm	Beautiful Vietnam – traditional dance performance	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
6–8pm	The Five and Dime Picture Show – free film screening of Pan's Labyrinth	The Void, level 1 Owen Building

Time	Event	Place
------	-------	-------

Thursday 5 March

12–12.30pm	Musical performance by Jessica Widdowson and Ollie Daley Smith	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
12.30–12.50pm	Musical performance by Zuza Paveley	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
12.30–1pm	Piano performance by Gita	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
1–1.30pm	Ballroom dancing	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
1–1.30pm	Singing performance by Sophie Lisi	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
1–2.30pm	Craft workshops – including decopatch	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
1.30–3pm	Kurdish celebration	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
6–9pm	The Big SHU Quiz	Hallam View

Friday 6 March

12–12.15pm	Guitar and singing performance by Animesh and Akash	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
12.15–12.40pm	Wilde Sammon	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
12.30–2pm	Baking demonstration	Kitchen, level 12 Owen Building
12.40–1pm	Cocklebread Band	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
1–1.20pm	Singing performance by Becky Webb	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
1.30–2pm	Wilde Sammon	Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus
1.30–3pm	Festa Junina – Brazilian carnival	Heartspace, level 2 Owen Building
2–3.30pm	Sugarcraft workshop	Owen Building 1032
5.30–7pm	Angklung demonstration	Owen Building 221
6pm–late	Holi festival celebrations	Meet at the main University entrance, Owen Building

Saturday 7 March

8am–6pm	Trip to Cambridge, Newcastle or Nottingham – student vote	Meet at the main University entrance, Owen Building
---------	---	---

Sunday 8 March

10am–3pm	International picnic in the park	Meet at the main University entrance, Owen Building
----------	----------------------------------	---

Events at City Campus

Events at Collegiate Campus

Get involved with next year's festival

Monday 7–Sunday 13 March 2016

Find out how at

go.shu.ac.uk/SHUfest

For more information contact

Student Services Centre Reception

Owen Building

City Campus

0114 225 4127

Email SHUfest@shu.ac.uk