

SHEFFIELD HALLAM UNIVERSITY: UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC CALENDAR 2015/16

Approved by Academic Board: revised version approved on 17 February 2015

This calendar relates to students following a standard undergraduate academic year. For undergraduate students who have an extended year (for example Education students who have teaching practice), details of their patterns of expected attendance and of assessment will be published in individual course guides/handbooks issued by the Faculty responsible for the programme. The calendar also specifies those weeks during which it is expected that the vast majority of teaching staff will need to be in attendance for teaching and related duties. These dates will not necessarily apply to all teaching staff.
