

The UK's largest modern business school

Sheffield
Hallam
University

Sheffield
Business School

With more than 8,000
students

A broad range of subjects and academic experts

High numbers of employers
working with us

A truly global reach a third of our students are from more than 100 countries

High quality facilities in an innovative and flexible learning environment

Our commitment to expanding students' horizons

Sheffield
Hallam
University

Sheffield
Business
School

Placing employability and social responsibility at the core of all that we do at the core of all that we do

Where students benefit from access to employers and business-relevant experience

Giving students ideas, experiences and techniques plus career opportunities and business connections

Providing an international approach within a supportive community

An open, engaging and dynamic culture

Our ambitious plan for the future

Sheffield
Hallam
University

Sheffield
Business
School

To be the UK's leading modern business school renowned for providing an industry-connected, real-world experience

To achieve greater international recognition for:

Our personalised approach to delivering business education

Our wide range of employer engagement and partnerships with business

Our research expertise that makes an impact in the real world

Innovative approaches to worldwide education partnerships