

Current English Language Level

If your English language level is at the required level to join one of our courses, we will make you an offer for the relevant course when we receive your test certificate.

Pre-sessional English for Academic Purposes

This is an intensive course. The length of time you study depends on the English language score required by your SHU degree.

See Entry requirements, fees, start dates and length of study for more information.

Using your current IELTS for UKVI (or equivalent other) test results, select your pre-sessional course by ticking [✓] the appropriate box.

Terms and conditions

The information you supply on this form will be used by Sheffield Hallam University in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and other applicable legislation. The University will use the information to process your application and to provide any relevant further information by post, email or text. It will also be used to support the University's marketing and market research activities.

Please tick [✓] if you do not wish to receive further information by:

Post  Text  Email  Phone

If at any time you change your mind and you would like the University to stop sending such information, please contact the Department of Marketing, Sheffield Hallam University, Sheffield S1 1WB or email marketing@shu.ac.uk

The information from your application form will be used to set up a student record on the University's student information (SI) system. Where required, this information may be shared with the government or their respective agents to check the accuracy of personal information provided by students against external data sources such as the Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA), or the Learning Skills Council Individual Learner Record (LSC ILR), returns. The University may also contact other institutions to confirm previous qualifications obtained.

To prevent and detect fraud and comply with regulations for international students, we reserve the right to, or may be required to, share this information with external organizations such as the police, the Home Office, the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, the UK Visa's and Immigration and local authorities.

The University is required to check international students' eligibility to study in the UK. This may require the University to liaise with and exchange data with the Home Office or related Government agencies in relation to students' visa history and/or immigration history, during the admissions process.

I consent to the Home Office, or related Government agency, releasing information about my immigration history to the University for these purposes. This may include sensitive personal data about any orders, warnings, convictions, or other penalties relevant to immigration.
(Please note that failure to provide consent by ticking [✓] the above box may delay the processing of your application).

Declaration

Please read and sign the declaration statement:

I confirm that, to the best of my knowledge, the information given in this form is true, complete and accurate and no information requested, or other material information has been omitted. I give my consent to the processing of my data by Sheffield Hallam University. I understand that any offer of a place on the above course is subject to my acceptance of the University's terms and conditions, which I have received and read. I understand what they say, and I agree to abide by the conditions set out there. I accept that if I do not fully comply with these requirements, Sheffield Hallam University reserves the right to cancel my application and I shall have no claim against Sheffield Hallam University in relation to this application.
