Suspension Polyvinyl Chloride Resins For Food Containers And Packaging Materials (SPVC)

Standard compliance: Q/0205HJH 021-2016, Suspension Polyvinyl chloride resins for food containers and packaging materials.

Viscosity number, number of impurity particles, volatiles, bulk density, sieve residue, number of "fisheyes", plasticizer absorption per 100g resin, whiteness index (at 160°C and after 10 min) comply with Q/0205 HJH025-2016. The VCM residual content and 1,1-dichloroethane comply with GB 4803-1994, Subclause 3.2.

Application	Used for medical sheets, and pipes fittings, rigid foam-cored, disks, injection-molding pieces, blow-molding products, food packaging materials, etc.	Used for rigid and semirigid products, medical sheets, boards, pipe fittings by injection molding, bottles, clear films, rigid pipe fittings by injection molding, etc.	Used for semirigid products, medical tubing, medical film, sheets, tubes, artificial leathers, rigid profiles, electric cables, and calendering and extruding products.	Used for tubes, profiles, sheets, clear products, monofilaments, rigid boards, disks, clear films, electrodes, fiber, etc.	U pac pro elect leat cable

Properties: Features thermo plasticity, being insoluble into water, gasoline and alcohol, swelled or dissolved into ether, ketone, chlorinated aliphatic hydrocarbons, and aromatic hydrocarbon, high resistance to corrosion, and good dielectric property.

Packaging and storage: It is packaged with composite bag made of kraft paper and polypropylene braided fabric, with net weight of (25±0.25) kg.

Alternatively, it may be packaged in other appropriate ways and with net weight of 500/600/1000kg. Don't store it in the open air. Avoid in the direct sunlight and keep dry.
