- 2.1.2 Your Contract Information confirms the particular contractual terms on which an offer is made to you. The University will make available to you the Contract Information. No information other than that contained in the Contract Information forms part of the Contract.
- 2.1.3 By accepting a place at the University, you are agreeing to be bound by the Contract Information; therefore you must read and understand the Contract Information prior to accepting your place.

2.2 The Pre-Enrolment Contract

2.2.1 When you accept the offer of a place at the University, a Pre-Enrolment Contract on the terms of the Contract Information is formed between you and the University.

- 2.2.2 Your Pre-Enrolment Contract reserves you a place on your Course and gives you the opportunity to enrol if you meet the terms of your offer, your entry requirements and any special requirements within your Contract Information.
- 2.2.3 You have a statutory right to cancel your Pre-Enrolment Contract. The cancellation period will expire at the end of 14 calendar days after the day you accept the offer of a place at the University. In these circumstances, clause 6.4 applies.
- 2.2.4 Your Pre-Enrolment Contract automatically expires if and when you enrol at the University, in which circumstances clause 2.3 below applies.

- 2.3.2 A liability to pay Tuition Fees arises at Enrolment.
- 2.3.3 If you enrol online, rather than face to face on University premises, you have a further statutory right to cancel your Enrolment Contract. - 3.1.2 The University is not obliged to provide reasons for its decisions in relation to applications.
- 3.1.3 Applicants and Prospective Students may be asked to declare unspent criminal convictions for particular types of offences in circumstances where there is a legal ground to ask for such a declaration.

- 3.1.5 Your entry requirements will be set out in your Contract Information.
- 3.1.6 Prospective Students will be notified if the conditions of their offers change after an offer is made to them; generally this would be for exceptional reasons outside the University's control such as:

- 3.2.7 Failure to comply with any such special requirements may result in termination of your Pre-Enrolment or Enrolment Contract, with the consequence that you may not be permitted to begin your Course at the University or you may be required to leave your Course and/or the University.

3.3 Conditional Offers

- 3.3.1 Offers of a place may be conditional on a Prospective Student fulfilling certain requirements either academic or otherwise, which will be stipulated when the offer of a place is made.
- 3.3.2 If a Prospective Student fails to meet these requirements to the reasonable satisfaction of the University, the Pre-Enrolment Contract between the Prospective Student and the University shall, unless the University agrees otherwise, automatically come to an end and both parties shall be in the same position as if they had never entered into any contract.

- 4.2.1 The Prospectus is produced at the earliest possible date to provide maximum assistance to intending applicants.
- 4.2.2 The University may make changes to the information within the Prospectus to bring it up to date before you start your Course.
- 4.2.3 Where changes to the Prospectus constitute changes to your Contract Information, you will be notified as soon as reasonably practicable.

4.3 Making changes to Contract Information provided about your Course up to 28 days before your Course starts

- 4.3.1 The University reserves the right to make changes to the Contract Information provided about your Course at any time up to the date 28 calendar days before your Course starts.
- 4.3.2 Changes are usually made for one or more of the following reasons:
  - a. To make updates to Courses to reflect best practice or new academic developments and to refresh Course curricula to ensure their currency for the benefit of Students;

- c. Any Tuition Fees paid (including any deposit) will normally be refunded.

4.4 Making late changes to Contract Information provided about your Course or making changes after your Course starts

- 4.4.1 The University reserves the right to make changes to the Contract Information provided about your Course at any time on and after the date 28 calendar days before your Course starts for the reasons set out in clause 4.3.2, as the University considers that changes for these reasons are fair.
- 4.4.2 Where the University makes a change under clause 4.4.1 or 4.4.5, Students on that Course will be notified as soon as reasonably practicable that the Contract Information about their Course has changed.
- 4.4.3 The University Website will be updated as soon as reasonably practicable to reflect the changes to the Course.
- 4.4.4 If you do not agree that the change is fair, you may wish to seek redress under the Student Complaints Policy and Procedure*.
- 4.4.5 Any late change to the Contract Information about your Course or any change made after your Course starts which falls outside the reasons in clause 4.3.2 would be considered by the University to be a variation of your Pre-Enrolment or Enrolment Contract to which your consent was required.
- 4.4.6 Student representatives will be consulted in advance about changes falling under clause 4.4.5.
- 4.4.7 In the circumstances in clause 4.4.5, you will be deemed to have consented to the change unless you give notice in writing that you do not consent by notifying the University in accordance with any published procedure within 3 weeks of being notified of the change.
- 4.4.8 If you have given notice that you do not consent to a change made under clause 4.4.5, clause 4.5 applies.
- 4.4.9 Most changes to Courses will become effective from the start of the next Academic Year, but in-year changes may be made by the University for reasons beyond the University's reasonable control.
- 4.4.10 Where changes are made to Courses, the University will take reasonable steps to mitigate the impact on Students wherever reasonably possible.

4.5 What will happen if you do not consent to a late change

4.5.1 Upon receiving written notice from you under clause 4.4.7, the University will arrange to discuss the matter with you formally within a reasonable period and seek to find a resolution to which both parties can agree.

- 4.5.2 If no resolution can be agreed upon within a reasonable period, you have a right to withdraw from your Course.
- 4.5.3 If, in the circumstances in clause 4.5.2, you decide to withdraw from your Course:
  - a. You must notify the University in writing, quoting your reason for withdrawal;
  - b. On request, the University will use its reasonable endeavours to provide a suitable alternative Course at the University (for which Tuition Fees will be payable) or suggest a suitable course at an alternative educational institution:

- 4.6.3 Exceptionally, the University may discontinue or suspend Courses where:
  - a. A commissioning, accrediting or regulatory body or employer withdraws its allocation of places, accreditation, support and/or funding for a Course; and/or
  - b. Events beyond the University's reasonable control prevent a Course from being delivered either temporarily or permanently (see also clause 11.2).
- 4.6.4 For changes which are outside the University's control, it will not always be possible to notify Students and Prospective Students in advance, but where the University is able to give notice, it will endeavour to do so as soon as reasonably practicable.

- 4.6.5 Save for in exceptional circumstances, including but not limited to those in clause 4.6.3, the University would not normally discontinue or suspend a Course after a cohort of Students had commenced their studies, but would instead make reasonable endeavours to deliver the Course in accordance with the Course Description to all Students in that cohort.

  - b. information technology systems require essential maintenance work, upgrades or repairs:
  - c. health and safety or other legal reasons apply; or
  - d. improvements and changes are being made to the University's estate and facilities.
- 4.7.2 The University will take reasonable steps to mitigate the impact of such withdrawals on Students wherever reasonably possible, for example by substituting alternative similar Services, and giving warning of forthcoming changes or likely periods of nonavailability.
- 4.7.3 The University reserves the right to make reasonable additional charges and to vary such charges from time to time for Services in order to cover costs or to ensure the availability of Services for the benefit of all Students, (for example by fining Students who misuse library services to the detriment of other users).
- 4.7.4 The University is unable to guarantee that all Services will be available at all times to all Students but will endeavour to provide a reasonable level of provision when the University is open.

4.8 Module Choices

4.8.1 The University aims to offer flexibility of study within the relevant Regulations but cannot guarantee that all parts of and options within Courses will be available to all Students who are qualified to take them.

- 4.8.2 The range of option modules on offer may change for the reasons set out in clause 4.3.2 and/or for the reasons given for discontinuing or suspending Courses in clause 4.6.1.
- 4.8.3 Some option modules may have minimum or maximum Student number requirements and may not run in every Academic Year.

- 5.2.1 The University reserves the right to make reasonable changes to the Regulations where in the opinion of the University it will assist in the proper delivery of education and/or it is in the interests of Students.
- 5.2.2 These changes will normally come into effect at the beginning of the next Academic Year.
- 5.2.3 The University reserves the right to introduce changes during the Academic Year when it reasonably considers it to be in the interests of Students or it is required by law or by funders.

6.2 Tuition Fee review

- 6.2.1 The levels of Tuition Fees are reviewed and may be revised on an annual basis prior to the beginning of the Academic Year in question.

- 6.3.4 You will be entitled to a refund of your deposit if you are refused a visa, and may receive a refund in other exceptional circumstances.

6.4 Withdrawals, transfers and time out from study and refunds

- 6.4.1 If you take time out from your studies, withdraw, or transfer to another institution within the first three weeks of your Course start date, in addition to any statutory cancellation rights which may apply to you under clauses 2.2.3 and 2.3.3, the University will refund any Tuition Fees paid, but any deposit paid will be retained as a contribution towards the University's reasonable costs and losses.
- 6.4.2 If you take time out from your studies, withdraw or transfer to another institution after the first three weeks of your Course start date, but before the end of an Academic Year, refunds/credits of Tuition Fees paid are not automatically given but, unless you retain a statutory right to cancel under clause 2.2.3 or 2.3.3 which entitles you to a full refund, the University will refund a proportion of any Tuition Fees pre-paid by you on a pro rata basis for the unexpired period of the Academic Year, subject to the University retaining an amount to cover its reasonable losses and costs as a result of the withdrawal, including retaining any deposit paid.
- 6.4.3 In any of the circumstances in clauses 6.4.1 or 6.4.2, you must follow the University's processes, as set out in the Fees Regulation*, and any refunds/credits will be calculated from the date the University receives formal notification via this process.
