

SHEFFIELD HALLAM UNIVERSITY: UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC CALENDAR 2017/18

Approved by Academic Board: 13 October 2015; graduation dates clarified January 2016; additional week added and re-assessment period amended December 2016; amended coursework submission dates June 2017

This calendar relates to students following a standard undergraduate academic year. For undergraduate students who have an extended year (for example Education students who have teaching practice), details of their patterns of expected attendance and of assessment will be published in individual course guides/handbooks issued by the Faculty responsible for the programme. The calendar also specifies those weeks during which it is expected that the vast majority of teaching staff will need to be in attendance for teaching and related duties. These dates will not necessarily apply to all teaching staff.
