

Why go to University?

There are so many reasons why you should think about Higher Education; these are just a selection of the benefits. We hope this supports you in making decisions on your next steps...

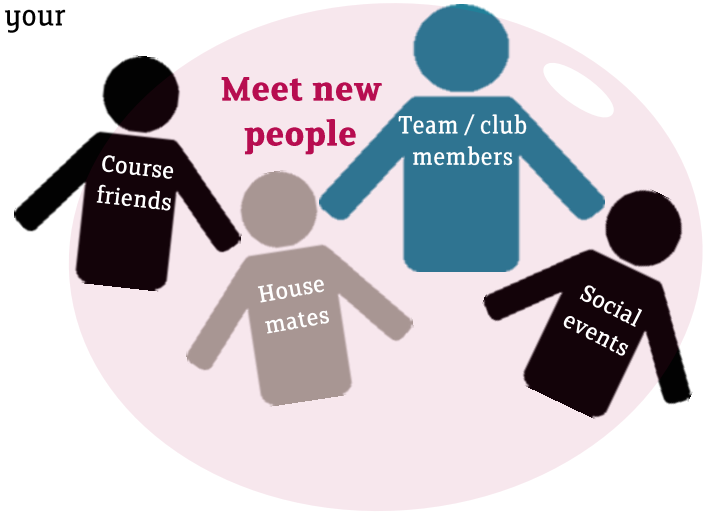

Independence

Part time work

Managing your own money

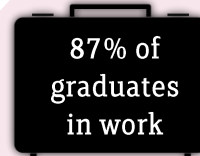

Meet new people

Team / club members

House mates

Social events

Career prospects

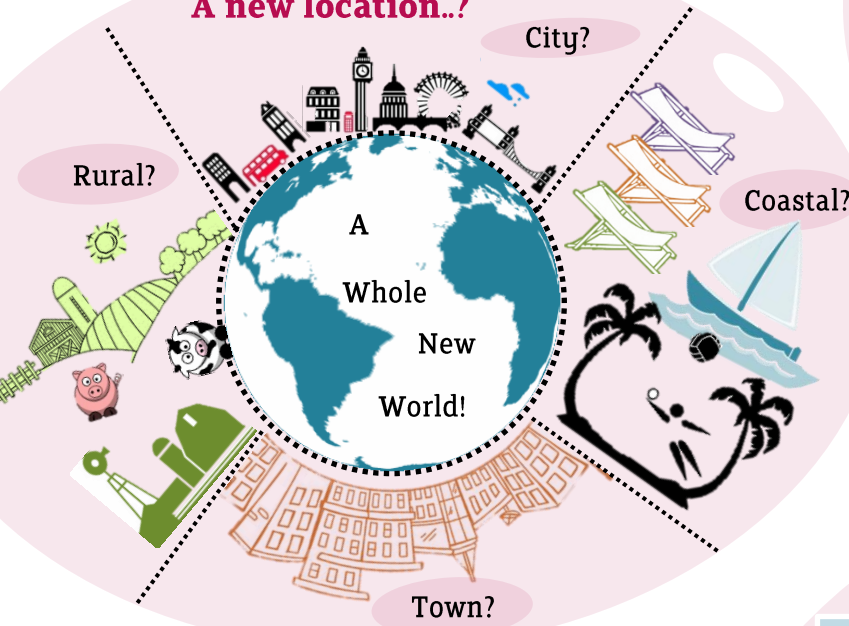

Compared to 70% of non-graduates

Increased earning potential of approx. £500,000 over your lifetime

A new location..?

A new way of learning...

• School VS University •

- Daily structure (9am - 3.30pm)

- 10+ subjects

- Homework

- Classroom learning

- Varied structure (approx. 14 hours a week)

- 1 subject

- Set assignments (Deadlines to meet)

- Variety of learning styles: lectures, seminars, practicals, independent study

Need help making your decisions?

- Visit open days/UCAS conventions
 - Discuss with friends/family
 - Ask teachers/advisors
 - Go online and research -UCAS and university specific websites are a great place to start!
- www.ucas.com www.shu.ac.uk